INFORMATION LETTER

VI International Scientific and Practical Conference
“The Phenomenon of Post-Globalism Culture: Cultural Democratization, Creative Spaces, and Cultural Policies”

NOVEMBER 27 – 28, 2025

Format: Online

Conference languages: Ukrainian, English, Polish, Italian, German, Modern Greek, French

This year's conference, organized by the Department of Cultural Studies, is devoted to the analysis of transformations in the cultural sphere under post-globalism. Special attention will be given to processes of cultural democratization, the development of creative spaces, museum practices, and contemporary cultural policies in both European and Ukrainian contexts.

The event aims to bring together the academic community and professionals in the field of culture to foster interdisciplinary dialogue and exchange of experience.

We invite scientists, educators, postgraduate students, employees of cultural institutions, and all those interested in contemporary approaches to cultural analysis to participate.

Main thematic areas of the conference:

- ❖ Theories and Practices of Cultural Democratization:
 - Cultural participation, inclusivity, and access to cultural heritage
 - Concepts of cultural citizenship and public culture
- ❖ Museums, Heritage, and the Transformation of Memory Institutions:
 - New museum narratives, digitization of heritage
 - Post-global challenges of memory representation
- ❖ Creative Spaces and New Formats of Cultural Communication:
 - Urban practices and independent cultural initiatives
 - Media, art, and interactive cultural spaces
- ❖ Cultural Policy in the Context of Post-Globalism:
 - European approaches to cultural sector regulation
 - Policies of memory, language, and identity
- ❖ Cultural Studies as an Academic Discipline: Methods, Challenges, and Prospects:
 - Methodologies of cultural research
 - Educational practices, interdisciplinarity, critical approaches
